Meet LACDP's Endorsed
California Democratic Party
Chair Candidate Rusty Hicks

Join local Democrats this Sunday, April 28 to meet our next California Democratic Party Chair Rusty Hicks. He will be traveling throughout Los Angeles County to share his vision for the future of the California Democratic Party.

There will be special guests in the San Fernando Valley with Assemblymember Jesse Gabriel and Assemblymember Miguel Santiago in Boyle Heights.

Don't miss out on your chance to hear him and share your thoughts with him as well.

Assembly District Election Meeting

– New Election AD51

On March 27, 2019 the Compliance Review Commission (CRC) released their decision relating to the Assembly District (AD) 51 new election. The CRC's decision orders a new election be conducted no later than May 18, 2019. The decision vacates all prior results except the ADEM's first-place self-identified female (Jamie Tijerina) and the top three other than self-identified female (Mike Fong, Juan Carlos Cruz, and Vicente Gonzalez-Reyes).

The new election will be held to fill 10 positions (6 self-identified female/4 other than self-identified female) and the representative to the Executive Board.

Who May Run as an Assembly District Delegate/Executive Board Representative?

Only those qualified previously as an ADEM and/or Executive Board candidate (minus the winners) are eligible.

Who May Vote in ADEMs?

Any participant registered as a Democrat in Assembly District 51 on/or before January 26, 2019, who is still currently registered as Democrat in the district at the time of the ADEM. All voters' eligibility will be verified prior to the issuance of any ballot.
